FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Dear Families:

I hope you had a wonderful weekend with your families. We are looking forward to a great week.

Yearbook Orders Due

The deadline for yearbook orders is fast approaching. There are only a few additional yearbooks ordered each year, so if you would like a yearbook it is important that you pre-order your yearbook now. Please click here for a flyer and order information.

Winter Sports Night

Winter Sports night is this Wednesday March 23 starting at 6PM in the gym. All winter sports teams will be recognized. JV and Varsity Boys and Girls Basketball as well as our 5th-8th grade cheerleaders. We hope that all parents and athletes can attend this special night.

Bingo Nights Event

Planners are still in need of volunteers for that night. Please click here to volunteer.

Nurses' Office: Important Reminder

No student can carry or take any medicine in school unless the nurse has a doctor's note and it is approved by the nurse.

Pretzels for a Purpose: New instructions

This Friday is a Falcon Friday and we will also have Pretzels for a Purpose. Please pay close attention to this order form. You may send payment for all of your kids in with one student. However, please cut and separate the order slips and send in to each individual teacher. This is very important so that each teacher knows which students in her class have ordered a pretzel.

Thank you and God Bless.
- Deacon Joe

Oil Spill Challenge: Kendall D. & Olivia S., and their classmates get a taste of the type of challenge an environmental engineer faces after an oil spill. STREAM Teacher, Mrs. Rubino created mini oil spills with 3rd and 4th graders and they used barrier methods along with cotton balls, sponges, straws, spoons and Dawn dish soap to get as much oil out of the water as possible. They also were instructed to place bird feathers into the oil spill to realize the impact on birds and try to clean them as well.
