FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Dear Families:

I hope you had a wonderful week-end with your families and were able to find some blessings in this rainy weekend.

The Lion King Jr. Dress Down Day

In honor of the opening night of the Lion King Jr., I am going to allow students to have a dress down day this Thursday, May 12. Cast and crew of the Lion King Jr. are invited to wear their cast T-shirts. All other students may treat this day as a standard dress down day, following all appropriate rules.

National Junior Honor Society

Reminder to NJHS Members: The final park clean-up of the school year will be tomorrow at 3:30 pm at Newton Lake Park. NJHS applications for current 6th and 7th graders are due on Tuesday, May 10. Please also see the eligibility requirements for more information.

Reading Incentive Program

Our 34th Annual Reading Incentive Program is underway! The program will run for four weeks and began May 6 with all reading slips due by Friday, June 3, 2022. Please see this page for more details.

Student Council Diaper Drive: May 16 - May 27, 2022

Guadalupe House is a family services organization located in Camden that is run by its founder Sister Helen Cole. We are asking the Saint Rose community to help Sister Helen in her mission and to support these families with diaper and baby wipe donations. Please click here for more information.

Thank you and God Bless. - Deacon Joe
