FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

St. Rose Students get CREATIVE at iDesign Competition: So proud of our 20 Middle Schoolers who participated in Camden Catholic's iDesign Competition last week. They worked together on teams of 5 and used common materials such as popsicle sticks, pipe cleaners, and rubber bands to design a phone holder that would solve a problem for a target audience. Throughout the 4-hour competition they learned about the design and inventing process and how engineers solve problems every day. They even got to present their inventions onstage with a power point presentation. We are proud of them and look forward to see what our teams do next year! Thank you to Mrs. Buechele for bringing them to this event.

Dear Families:

I am still recovering well and I have been keeping in close contact with Mrs. Durkin. I am looking forward to seeing you all in December.
