FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Friday was a busy, busy day! We had a very busy day on Friday with another successful Laps for Learning event for grades K–8, AND a visit with 7th and 8th graders from "Trouble" the Therapy dog and his handler Kim, certified by the Alliance of Therapy Dogs. Special thank you to 7th grader Cael Gabbett who first met Trouble and Kim and worked with Mrs. Durkin to have them visit our school! Trouble will be back again soon to visit other grades!

Dear Families:

We had an interesting Laps for Learning Day this year—the weather took us on quite the ride! Thank you to everyone who donated and volunteered. I would also like to say a huge thank you to Mrs. Maureen Hillen and Mrs. Kristie Saunders, the Co-Chairs of the event. They remained incredibly flexible and calm and were able to make Laps for Learning a success for all grade levels—despite the crazy storm!
