FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

That's a Wrap on Week 10! What a week we had! You name it—we did it! We collected food for the food pantry, celebrated All Saint's Day as a community with our annual parade, welcomed our 2025-2026 Student Council and then executed our 104th Annual Christmas Bazaar. Thank you to all of the people who made it such a success!

Dear Families:

We had a beautiful start to our week with our All Saint's Day parade, students of the month recognition and the installation of the 2025-2026 St. Rose Student Council. Then we had a beautiful end to our week with a sunny Fall day for our Christmas Bazaar. Thank you to all of the booth chairs, volunteers and donors on this fantastic day! I want to take this opportunity to send a special thank you to Mrs. Chrissi McSweeney and Mrs. Donna Conte, the co-chairs of the Christmas Bazaar, and to their Logistics coordinator, Mrs. Liz Coppola. I was blown away by my first St. Rose Christmas Bazaar — and I have heard that these three volunteers are passing on the torch for next year's event! I hope we are lucky enough to have another group of leaders who can run this event as smoothly and calmly as these three have. THANK YOU for many years of a job well done! I would also like to share this special thank you note we received from FirstWay for the wonderful donations we sent to them last week. It really made a difference to them. Thank you for jumping in to help so quickly.

CHOP Pajama Day: Save the Date—December 5. Our school will be participating in CHOP Pajama Day this year! We will be having a pajama day at school for all students who donate $1 or more to help sick children at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. More information to come.
