

MEET THE manager

Alison Peters
Food Service Director

About Alison

Alison joined the Nutri-Serve K-12 team in February 2024. Previously, she accumulated extensive experience working in contract foodservice corporate dining, specifically within the cafeteria and catering department at Campbell Soup's headquarters, as well as serving as a Dining Services and Retail Services Manager at multiple institutions, including The College of New Jersey and Drexel University. In addition to her professional endeavors, Alison serves as a Special Olympics Volunteer Coach, supporting athletes in soccer, volleyball, and bocce ball. She enjoys spending time with family and friends, has a passion for travel, and considers the beach to be her favorite destination. Alison looks forward to providing students with a variety of nutritious food options in the upcoming year.